

An Invitation from
Hal Daub, Chairman

Social Security Advisory Board

On behalf of the Social Security Advisory Board, I would like to invite you to attend a forum discussion of the Long-term Impact of Immigration on Social Security and the National Economy.

Wednesday, September 7, 2005

9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

SDG-50 Dirksen Senate Office Building, 1st and C Streets, NW, Washington, DC 20010

The Social Security Advisory Board periodically convenes an expert panel for purposes of reviewing the Social Security Trustees assumptions and methods used for projecting the long-range financial status of the Social Security trust funds. The most recent Technical Panel cautioned that the current assumptions used by the Trustees could be misrepresenting the true impacts of immigration on the trust funds and on the economy. The Advisory Board believes that the issues raised by the Technical Panel need to be explored. Please join us as we discuss these issues with:

Richard Jackson, Center for Strategic and International Studies

Jeffrey Passel, Pew Hispanic Center

Barry Edmonston, Portland State University

John Wilmoth, United Nations Population Division

Demetrios Papademetriou, Migration Policy Institute

Michael Teitelbaum, Alfred P. Sloan Foundation

Wolfgang Lutz, International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis

Susan Martin, Institute for the Study of International Migration

And others

LUNCHEON SPEAKER

Sylvester J. Schieber

Vice President/U.S. Director of Benefits Consulting, Watson Wyatt Worldwide

Dr. Schieber, noted economist and expert on workforce management, pensions, and Social Security, will address global aging and "living happily ever after". Dr. Schieber currently serves as a member of the Social Security Advisory Board.

Please share this invitation with interested colleagues.

Lunch will be provided

Please RSVP by Friday August 26, 2005
